01 CLIENT NEED

Hospital leaders often have an ambitious clinical vision but no single, sequenced plan for the technology needed to deliver it. Greenfield projects need digital decisions tied to design and construction milestones before costly choices are locked in. Existing hospitals face fragmented systems and competing priorities with no clear view of where they stand. Requests typically come from the CEO, CIO or board, triggered by a new hospital project, a strategic plan refresh, or a major system decision.

02 CLEVELAND CLINIC VALUE PROPOSITION

Cleveland Clinic advises from the perspective of an operating academic health system that plans, builds and runs digital capabilities across domestic and international locations, not from theory. Our international advisory team pairs client leaders with Cleveland Clinic Digital experts and frames recommendations around a simple maturity view and a three-horizon roadmap (Foundation, Build & Integrate, Optimize & Scale). Every opportunity is paired with a practical next step the client can act on. Recommendations are vendor-neutral, and the client owns and approves all decisions.
